

American Chippendale Mahogany Tilt-Top Hairy Paw Tea Table, Circa 1750

Description

American Chippendale mahogany one board tilt-top tea table with a carved floral scalloped edge, turned bulbous spiral ringed pedestal, and terminating on a tripod base with floral acanthus carved knees resting on hairy paw feet. Table retains the original brass banjo locking mechanism, Mid 18th Century. Attributed to Robert Walker of Williamsburg, VA

27.5 Tall / 34.75 Diameter

Gldnassoc206@gmail.com

843-723-8886

4171